

Ms. Shawn Brantmeier

WPC Director of Operations

Biography

Shawn Brantmeier is the Director of Operations for the Wisconsin Paper Council. In this critical position, Shawn manages the daily activities of the WPC office and is a core member of our management team. As an integral part of our world-class team, Shawn works to implement innovative ideas and helps create and execute best practices for the organization. She is responsible for ensuring that the organization is managed and performing efficiently and effectively.

Shawn brings a diverse skillset to the WPC from her previous roles in management, accounting, human resources and recreation.

Most recently, Shawn worked as the Interim Executive Director for the Fort Atkinson Club, a multi-purpose, nonprofit community center that serves Fort Atkinson and the surrounding areas offering a business/ community events and opportunities. Previous to that role, Shawn was the Human Resources Coordinator for Hoard's Dairyman and Daily Jefferson County Union where she managed matters related to employment, compensation/ benefits, and employee relations.